

ACADEMIC SUPPORT RESOURCES

This document is designed to help students, faculty members, and staff identify supportive resources to assist students with their academics. Use the hyperlinks and information to navigate to specific resources and offices to learn more.

DEPARTMENT OF ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES (DAS)

 404.727.9877

Registration with DAS enables students to receive support related to needed accommodations.

Forms, Documentation Requirements, Example Accommodations, and FAQs are available on the DAS website.

DAS is committed to advancing an accessible and "barrier-free" environment for the Emory community, ensuring that the principles of access, equity, inclusion, and learning are realized.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SUPPORT PROGRAM (ELSP)

 404.727.2183

Courses include intermediate and advanced written and oral communication courses.

Rotating workshops are focused on teacher training, research article writing, and presentations.

Training, programming, and events are provided to support multilingual speakers and international students.

STUDENT DIGITAL LIFE

 ats.emory.edu/sdl

Student Tech Support, Services, and Spaces are available.

Workshops and events are also offered.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT RESOURCES

WRITING CENTER SUPPORT

 404.727.1531

Individual Consultations are available with advanced graduate students, and Writing Program Faculty are available for appointments to support a range of projects including course papers, dissertation chapters, conference proposals, articles, and more.

Dissertation Boot Camps are hosted several times throughout the year to empower participants' goal-setting and writing in a supportive environment.

Weekly Writing Group are co-hosted with the LGS English Language Support Program. Quiet writing time is held for the first hour and a writing discussion for those who stay for a second hour.

Individualized Consultations with Teaching Materials enable students to meet with advanced graduate students and Writing Program Faculty to discuss creating meaningful learning outcomes and syllabus crafting.

Fellowship Opportunities are offered by the Writing Center. Three advanced fellowships for LGS students are available each year, providing opportunities to grow as an educator and build out CV experience.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT & SCHOLAR SERVICES (ISSS)

 404.727.0830

International Student and Scholar Services serve Emory's international students, scholars, and global community. The office aspires to be a comprehensive resource for Emory's international community.

Information about Getting a Student Visa, Understanding Immigration Documents, and Information about Maintaining Legal Status can be found here.

OMBUDS OFFICE

 404.727.1531

Assistance navigating interpersonal conflicts including improprieties or unfairness are offered, as well as guidance on University policies and procedures.

Informal mediation through facilitated discussions for individuals experiencing interpersonal issues are provided.